

NEW YORK HERALD, TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1864.

SALES AT AUCTION.

ADRIAN H. MULLER AUCTIONEER. Household Furniture, Pictures, &c., Party Furniture, and Vases, Lot No. 12, at 10 o'clock, on Ninth Avenue, at Auction—ADRIAN H. MULLER, P. H. WILKINS & CO. will sell auction on Wednesday, January 13, at 10 o'clock, the following described Real Estate:—West Thirty-second street—The building stands on the rear of the lot, which is 25 feet front by 100 feet deep, one half of which is 100 feet deep, and one half can remain. The building stands on the rear of Ninth Avenue, in the best part of Carmansville, commanding a fine view northward street, and running westwardly. The building is 25 feet wide, 100 feet deep from 100 feet deep, perfectly level, on even grade with the tenth avenue, and a very little out-of-grade due to the fact that the building leans to the north. It will be an immense think buttress, and there is a probability that it will fall. The building is in good condition, and will improve more rapidly; one half can remain on mortgage. Fourth Avenue—One Lot, or half of Seventy-six street, 200 feet long, one half can remain on mortgage. Maps at the office of the Auctioneers.
